I provide skilled and professional writing, editing, and consulting to help you connect with the people you want to reach. I'll help you promote your business or non-profit in an engaging and persuasive way. My workshops, coaching, and longer courses can teach you or your people how to communicate with impact, clarity, and confidence.

QUALIFICATIONS

Experience includes writing and editing reports, feature articles, speaking notes, press releases, newsletters, web content, marketing materials, and educational materials. I have edited items as small as a web page of 200 words and as large as the Tr'ondëk-Klondike World Heritage dossier of 300,000+ words (for which I led a team of editors in 2016–17). An illustrated book I edited was a successful UNESCO World Heritage nomination proposal for Grand Pré, Nova Scotia.

Member: Annapolis Valley Chamber of Commerce •
Plain Language Association International • Writers' Federation of Nova Scotia

WORK

1998–present Freelance writer, editor, and workshop leader: Clients include Acadia University, Annapolis Valley Chamber of Commerce, Innovacorp, Kings–Hants CBDC, Landscape of Grand Pré Inc., Lunenburg Board of Trade, the Municipality of the County of Kings, Nova Scotia Business Inc., Nova Scotia Community College, Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in First Nation (Tr'ondëk–Klondike World Heritage nomination), Valley Regional Enterprise Network, and Valley Women's Business Network.

1993–98 Geoinformation International (a division of Pearson)
Cambridge, England

Group managing editor: guided editorial production and ensured high quality of three trade magazines covering geographic technologies: Mapping Awareness, GIS Europe and Geoinformation Africa. Worked closely with authors (including academics, decision makers and practitioners), freelancers and in-house staff.

Editor: in charge of editorial content and production of Mapping Awareness with advisory role on GIS Europe. Planned editorial strategy; commissioned features, reviews and opinion pieces. Rewrote submissions to improve clarity. Condensed wordy prose; researched and added new information to sketchy copy with authors' approval. Proofed and approved final layouts.

Hired in 1993 as editorial assistant for GIS Europe.
